

Digital Literacy

Branch	Registration no	Name
AI/ML	25BAI11110	Khushi Singhi

What is digital literacy

- Ability to use digital tools effectively.
- Understanding online safety and security.
- Finding , evaluating, and using information.
- Communicating responsibly online.
- Creating and sharing digital content.

Safe internet practices

Safe browsing

Check website URLs before login

Avoid clicking unknown/suspicious links

Download apps only from trusted sources

Personal data Protection

Never share OTP, passwords, or bank details

Avoid posting personal info publicly

Be careful while using public wi-fi

Smart Behaviour

Think before clicking or downloading

Don't trust unknown emails or messages

Log out from shared/public devices

Professional Online Presence

Profile and Identity

Use real name and clear identity

Keep a professional profile photo

Maintain a clean username

Communication

Use formal email(e.g. college email)

Write clear and respectful messages

Avoid slang in professional platforms

A strong online presence builds credibility and career opportunities

Professional Online Presence

Online Behaviour

Think before commenting or posting

Avoid offensive or controversial content

Be respectful in discussions

Digital Footprint

Everything online stays permanent

Employers may check your profiles

Maintain a positive online image

A strong online presence builds credibility and career opportunities

Smart Digital Habits

Awareness

Think before clicking links

Verify information before sharing

Stay alert to online scams

Security Habits

Update passwords regularly

Enable privacy settings

Keep apps and devices updated

Good digital Habits ensure safety, productivity, and Long-term success.

Smart Digital Habits

Responsible Usage

Manage screen time wisely

Avoid overuse of social media

Use technology productively

Continuous learning

Stay updated with new technologies

Learn basic cyber security

Improve digital skills regularly

Good digital Habits ensure safety, productivity, and Long-term success.

Conclusion

- Digital literacy is essential in today's world
- Helps us stay safe and responsible online
- Builds a strong professional image
- Important for academic and career success
- Essential for future growth

Be smart. Stay safe. Grow digitally